BREAD OF HEAVEN

Lyrics: Josiah Conder, 1824 (alt.) and James Montgomery, 1825 (alt.) // Music: Greg Yoder and Seth Crissman, 2022

Be known to us in breaking bread,
But do not then depart;

You sustain us and are all we need.
D Em F#m G A Bm
Ever may our souls be fed
A G D
With this true and living bread;

There sup with us in love divine;
Thy Body and Thy blood,
That living bread, that heav'nly wine
Be our immortal food.

Bread of heaven on thee we feed
You sustain us and are all we need.
Ever may our souls be fed
With this true and living bread;

Bm A G
O let our lives be rooted in thee
G A Bm A G
To thy cross we look and live.
G A Bm
This blessed cup of sacrifice.
Bm A/C# D A G
'Tis thou salvation gives.

Bread of heav'n, fruit of the vine
You sustain us, turning water into wine
Ever may our souls be fed
With this true and living bread

We're awed by the beauty, awed by the beauty
 The world dances for you. We want to dance, too. And we sing

*Lyrics: George Matheson, 1890 (alt.) // Music: Greg Yoder, 2022

                          A                            E                            C#m B    E
But you hold me within your arms, and strong shall be my hand

My heart is weak and poor, 'til it a captain finds
It has no compass, floats unmoored, and sinks into the brine
It cannot freely move 'til you have forged its chain
Anchored to your matchless love, deathless it shall reign

My power is faint and low 'til I have learned to serve
It wants the needed fire to glow, it wants the breeze to nerve
It cannot drive the world until itself be driven
Its flag can only be unfurled when you have breathed from heaven

My will is not my own 'til you have made it yours
If it would move the hearts of stone, it must their powers abhor
It only stands unbent, amid the clashing strife
When on your bosom it has lent, and found in you its life

PRAISE TO GOD (WHIRLWINDS)

Lyrics: Anna Barbauld, 1772 // Music: Greg Yoder, 2015

G                      Em          G
Praise to God, immortal praise,
G    D
For the love that crowns our days
G    Em          G
Bounteous Source of every joy,
G    D                  G
Let thy praise our tongues employ
C    D          G
For the blessings of the field,
G    D
For the stores the gardens yield
C    D          G
For the joy which harvests bring,
G    D                  G
Grateful praises now we sing

Flocks that whiten all the plain, yellow sheaves of ripened grain
All that spring with bounteous hand, scatters o'er the smiling land
All that gen'rous autumn pours, from her overflowing stores
These, great God, to thee we owe, source whence all our blessings flow

But Lord, should rising whirlwinds tear, from the stem it's ripening ear
Should the fig tree's blossoming shoot, drop her green untimely fruit
Should the vine put forth no more, nor the olive yield her store
Though the sick'ning flocks should fall, and the herds desert the stall
Should thy holy hand restrain, th'early and the latter rain
Blast each opening bud of joy, and the rising year destroy
Should the vine put forth no more, nor the olive yield her store
Should the rising whirlwinds come, and tear the song from out our lungs

Yet to thee my soul shall raise
Grateful vows and solemn praise
And when every blessing's flown
Love thee for thyself alone
